

Most garage doors have differing panel heights and widths even if they look the same.

Measure carefully to the nearest millimetre.

Right click / Add Sticky Note to annotate this PDF - or print it out, write on it then scan or photograph.

 Height 1 = <input type="text"/>			 Garage Door Insulation www.thermadoor.com.au
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

 Height 2 = <input type="text"/>	 Width B = <input type="text"/>	 Width C = <input type="text"/>	 Width D = <input type="text"/>
 Width A = <input type="text"/>

 Height 3 = <input type="text"/>
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--	--

 Height 4 = <input type="text"/>
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--	--